THE AMERICAN BASTILE DEMOLISHED.

Fort Lafayette Destroyed by Fire—Explosion of Shells—The Powder Magazine in Danger, &c.

Yesterday afternoon the alarming report reached this city that Fort Lafayette was on fire. The news was eagerly caught up, and great consternation prevailed among those whose residences were in that neighborhood but whose business called them to New York. The alarm was not groundless, the danger was imminent, and every one was on the qui vive for information. A general rush was made thereto, when it was found, that the shavings, workshop, and lumber were all on fire.—Every effort possible was made to quench the flames, but without the means of forcing water, without even fire hose or water buckets, the most strenuous efforts would have been of little avail, and a panic seizing the workmen, owing to their knowledge of the proximity of the powder magazine, a general stampede for Fort Hamilton was made. The sergeant and three men, the only soldiers on duty at the Fort, immediately reported to their proper officers, and a number of men were sent over to the Fort to endeavor to quell the fire, but with no effect. The united work of several steam engines would scarcely have been sufficient to stay the progress of the flames, added to which few could be found hardy enough to brave the reported and greatly exaggerated danger of an explosion. The Fort was consequently deserted and the fire given full play, and well did it use the liberty thus given it. The fire was first discovered at ten minutes to 1 o'clock, and in less than an hour from that time the flames were bursting through the roof, casting a red glare, even in the bright light of noonday, on the waters around. At the time of the breaking out of the fire there were ten carpenters and four laborers at work, the Fort being in charge of a sergeant and three men. Throughout the whole of the afternoon the fire burnt fiercely, the flames bursting out in forked tongues innumerable above the outer walls of the Fort, casting their red glare all around and spreading consternation on all sides. As the darkness of night closed in, the scene was grand beyond description. The waters of the harbor reflected the red light of the fire for miles. In the midst of the water, made more solitary by the gloom caused by the shore, was to be seen the firm walls of the Fort enclosing a seething, hissing mass of fire, which ever and anon shot forth in shoot but bright sheets of flame. Through out the whole of the night, and even now while this is being read, the fire is still raging, for thousands of lumber lay piled in Fort Lafayette, all of which must be consumed before the flames will be allayed.

DESCRIPTION OF FORT LAFAYETTE.

Fort Lafayette was built subsequent to the close of our war with England, for the purpose of more effectually guarding the ocean entrance to the metropolis. It stands on the Long Island side of the bay, about six miles below the city, and almost directly opposite to Fort Wadsworth, on Staten Island. It was built on a reef about three hundred yards from the shore, and at low tide it is surrounded by about six feet of water. The structure was quaint in appearance from the outside as well as within. The inner wall is diamond shaped, and rises five or six feet higher than the wall surrounding it. The top surface of the inner wall slopes towards the centre, and it is upon this strong rampart that the heavy guns of the fort were mounted. For a long series of years this fort has stood like a sturdy sentinel guarding the gates to the Empire City, without once having had the satisfaction of discharging a hundred pounder across the bow of a hostile man-of war. But it has done other service. During the late civil war, it was made to help Secretary Stanton disgrace the land it was made to protect, and the name of the distinguished soldier under whose name it was christened. During these four years of strife, hundreds of men who, had they been granted a fair trial before any tribunal, could have been found guilty of nothing, suffered confinement for months and years in its dungeons. There will be many victims who will rejoice when they hear of the demolition by fire of this American bastile. About forty-four years ago, Fort Lafayette presented a very different appearance than it does to day. Then the gallant Lafayette, from whom it subsequently took its name, was revisiting the country for whose liberties he had fought, when its government was in course of inception. Then its walls and cannon had changed for a time their warlike aspect, and were decked with wreaths of flowers and French and American flags, and mottoes that were typical of freedom of speech and thought, a part of the grand old principles upon which the new republic had but recently been founded. On that glorious occasion, when Lafayette, in presenting to Washington the key of the Bastile as a token of that tyranny and intolerance, which he hoped would never disgrace this fair land, he gave utterance to the following words: "Permit me, my dear General, to offer you a picture representing the Bastile, such as it was some days after I had given orders for its demolition. I make you homage, also, of the principal key of this fortress of despotism." The historian relates that Washington received the key with reverence, as "a token of the victory gained by liberty over despotism." The friend of Washington little dreamed, at that time, that the very fort which it was intended should commemorate and honor his name, should at last become itself a bastile, the thing which he held in such utter abhorrence.

CURIOSITIES OF SLEEP.

In Turkey, if a man falls asleep in the neighborhood of a poppy field, and the wind blows toward him, he becomes narcotized, and would die if the country people, who are well acquainted with the circumstances, did not bring him to the next well or stream, and empty pitcher after pitcher of water on his face and body. Dr. Appenheim, during his residence in Turkey, owed his life to this simple and efficacious treatment.

Dr. Graves, from whom this anecdote is quoted, also reports the case of a gentleman thirty years of age, who, from long continued sleepiness, was reduced to a complete living skeleton, unable to stand on his legs. It was partly owing to disease, but chiefly to the abuse of opium, until at last, unable to pursue his business, he sank into abject poverty and woe. Dr. Ried mentions a friend of his who, whenever anything occurred to distress him, soon became drowsy and fell asleep.

A student at Edinburg, upon hearing suddenly of the unexpected death of a near relative, threw himself on a bed and almost instantaneously, amid the glare of noonday, sank into a profound slumber. Another person, reading to one of his dearest friends stretched on his deathbed, fell fast asleep, and, with the book still in his hand, went on reading, utterly unconscious of what he was doing.

A woman at Hamadt slept seventeen or eighteen hours a day for fifteen years. Another is recorded to have slept once in four days. Dr. Manelish mentions a woman who spent three-fourths of her life in sleep, and Dr. Elliotson quotes a case of a young lady who slept for six weeks and recovered. The venerable St. Augustine of Hippo prudently divided his hours into three parts—eight to be devoted to sleep, eight to meditation, and eight to converse with the world. Maniacs are reported, particularly in the Eastern hemisphere, to become furiously vigilant during the full of the moon, more especially when the deteriorating rays of its polarized light are permitted to fall into their apartment—hence the name of lunatics. There certainly is greater propeness to disease during sleep than in the waking state, for those who pass the night in the Champagnes di Roma inevitably become affected with its noxious air; while travellers who go through without stopping escape the miasma. Intense cold produces sleep, and those who perish in the snow, sleep on till the sleep of death.

NOTICE.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 45,793.
With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,
I am, respectfully,
HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.
In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No. 15,273 ... $5,000
" " 10,818 ... 5,000
" " 18,067 ... 5,000

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1868.

THE CONSTITUTION.

Neither the Constitution of the United States, nor those of the several States, have been sufficiently studied or understood by the people. It should be the duty of every citizen to live in conformity with the Constitution, and compel others to do the same, when constitutionally called upon. To do this, every citizen should have a copy of this inestimable instrument in his house and be able to read it. The Federal Constitution should be the political creed of every man. The time has come when it is necessary for Southern men to band together in defence of their common rights and glorious Constitution, menaced as it is, on all sides, by Destine Radicalism, by carpet baggers and scalawags, joined with the stupid hostility of the black masses, whom they gull and lead to midnight raids upon property and out rages upon women.

The Constitution is trampled on and insulted by a ferocious Radical rabble.

The Churches are desecrated by their vile ungodly political sermons.

Since Lee surrendered and Grant said "Let there be peace," every thing sacred to Peace, to Freedom, and to man, has been denied us—liberty of speech, liberty of the press, trial by jury, and the right to bear arms.

The time honored institutions of our fathers, which made us prosperous and happy, and our country glorious, are left without defence and exposed to the rude assaults of ignorance, faction, vice and unholy ambition.

We must no longer discuss and divide upon old party issues—Bank, Tariff and Secession—for they are dead issues. To discuss and divide upon them now is as idle and unavailing, as we remarked to an old Democratic friend, as discussion and division upon the color of the last horse shod in Tubal Cain's blacksmith shop, before the flood.

The election of Grant puts a quietus upon Federal issues for a season. We should turn attention to our own State and domestic affairs, so sadly disordered. The government, imposed by the Constitution of the State, does not suit the condition of our people, or is it adapted to their wants, tastes, nor necessities. It did not spring from the public sentiment or wishes of the country, but was devised by a set of foreign adventurers, looking upon the State as a conquered province, in which was to be instituted a government, not for the benefit of the governed,—not in the interests of a gallant people, among whom are to be cherished pride in their ancestry and former history, the self-respect and manhood of freemen, an enlightened self-interest which constitutes patriotism,—but for the convenience and emolument of these adventurers themselves, and such white natives as, for their own aggrandizement, should choose to coalesce with them. This being the scope and design of its installation, the means of imposing it upon an unwilling people were the votes of 70,000 ignorant and misguided negroes, and the terrors inspired by the presence of an army.

Now it should be borne in mind that even the Reconstruction Acts of Congress did not require any change in our system of State government, except a provision for negro suffrage.

All the other Radical impositions; the stowing away in the Declaration of Rights of a fundamental requirement to pay those classes of the public securities, which are known to be held at the North, and by a "Ring" here having Northern allies, along side of the right to freedom of speech and of the press, of Jury trial, Habeas Corpus, and all the great safe-guards of liberty—the institution of many new and unnecessary offices, "splendid" systems of education, charity, penal and reformatory establishments, even searching down to idiots and drunkards, and requiring an annual expenditure far exceeding the means and resources of the State in its days of prosperity and now wholly ruinous in her present dejection and impoverishment,—the overthrow of our ancient county police and government, and its substitution by five Commissioners, with powers of taxation equal to, if not beyond, those of the Legislature,—the subversion of our Code of laws under the guise of an alteration in the modes of legal procedure, novel and repugnant to our habits of thought and action, seriously increasing the costs of the administration to litigants, and all contrived to give pay to officials who had none before, or to increase that of old officers,—the devices to create an official interest powerful enough, by its combinations, to triumph in elections, through the instrumentality of negro votes, over the interests of the people, and to enable the tax receivers, by means of salaries of offices, jobs and contracts, to lord it over the tax payers—all these impostures and tricks were not required by Congress, but are the cunning contrivances of stock jobbers, adventurers, political preachers, and hangers on of the army, who flattered the prejudices of, or, through Union Leagues, exercised terrors over, the colored voters, and thereby obtained seats or influence in the Convention!

To such an extent have these changes extended, that our emigrants, driven away by this policy, have more information, the moment they arrive at their new homes in California or elsewhere, as to everything pertaining to the local government, than people have of their affairs in this ancient State, whose white settlements go back three hundred years! These emigrants, indeed, know more of their future than we do of ours. There they find other settlers, who can give reasonable calculations of the levies they may expect from taxation and the exactions of the government, but who has estimated ours, either for the State or county, according to the requirements under the Constitution?

THE ORANGE PRESENTMENT.—We are glad to see that the papers, North and South, are publishing the presentment recently made by the Grand Jury of Orange county. Here is what the Richmond Enquirer says of it:

"The presentment made by the Grand Jury of the county of Orange, N. C., at the last term of the Superior Court of that county, is a document of great significance. We publish it in full this morning, because its interest well entitles it to the space it occupies. As a page from the history of the times in which we live, it will be read by posterity almost with incredulity.—Such a picture of the degenerate judiciary of North Carolina, it will hardly be believed ever had a reality. It will not be believed that a people, like the present race of Carolinians, who, in the days of their liberty and independence, delighted to honor the virtues of their learned judiciary, could ever be brought to tolerate the present successors of their famous judges. It will hardly be believed that any power on earth could so fetter the people of the noble old Commonwealth, as to keep down their defiance under such provocation, such disgrace, and such ineffable wrong. Posterity will ask with wonder: "Why slumbered the indignation of the Democracy? Why were the people so patient?"

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 3.—Within the last two weeks there has been a marked advance in the market price of the various State securities of South Carolina. Bills receivable have risen from 70 to 90; old bonds from 57 to 65, and new from 52 to 57. Charleston city stock has advanced 10 per cent. These facts are regarded as indications of increased public confidence and the beginning of brighter times at the South.

There are probably no "Rings" in South Carolina, and the Governor of the State, though a new-comer, has exhibited a moderation, fairness and liberality of spirit, which have told with marked effect upon its material interests. It is a pity that Holden can not rise to the height of Governor Scott.

Hon. T. A. R. Nelson made very severe strictures last Tuesday in the Knoxville Chancery Court on the Methodist Church South. He said that its secession from the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1844 was the entering wedge of the great rebellion, and added that he was fearful that if the Southern church is continued as a church organization it will be the cause of bringing on the country another bloody war. He further said that there was no use for such an organization as the Church South.—Cin. Com.

Mr. Nelson showed himself to be an ass in the impeachment court, but not so great a one as these charges against the Methodist Episcopal Church South prove him to be. It is not a Southern church in any offensive sense. It added the word "South" to its title merely to distinguish it from that of the Northern church, which is indeed a political church, and did more to cause the secession movement and the war than any other organization in the country. Its malignity is equalled only by the ignorance of the great mass of its members.—This church is the wolf that muddied the stream, and the Southern church is the lamb that it would lay the blame upon.—Rich. Dispatch.

THE PERPETUAL SESSION OF CONGRESS ACT.—Senator Trumbull, in conversation to day, expressed the opinion that the act providing for a March session of Congress will not be repealed this winter, notwithstanding all statements to the contrary.—The Senator considers the provision for such session to be very desirable, as it insures an early organization of the Forty-first Congress, and is calculated to cause all the States to hold Congressional elections at an earlier day. As the laws of the different States now stand, the elections take place at different seasons, so that there never is a full Congress till towards December. It is thought the provision for a March session will cause a uniform time for such elections, so that a full house may be prepared to meet and organize in March. It is not regarded as probable that any legislation will be entered upon, however, the idea being that the House will merely organize and then adjourn.—N. Y. Herald, 3d.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.—Rev. Arad Lakin, the carpet bag President of the University of Alabama, has resigned. He was unfit for the place, and his election was a reproach to the Institution. It is probable that Dr. Harper will be selected to fill the vacancy. We are informed, on good authority, that the latter is an able and learned man, and withal a quiet, unassuming gentleman. We also hear that, in prospect of Harper's acceptance, General J. H. Forney has accepted the Chair tendered to him at the July session of the Regents; and that H. S. Whitfield, Esq., who had declined serving with Lakin, will follow Gen. Forney's example, as Professor of Natural Philosophy.—Mobile Register.

In a conversation recently Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, told the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald that firmness in the administration of the laws will restore tranquility, and that firmness is what the country obtains in Gen. Grant. The night before the vote on impeachment, he said Gen. Grant visited Ben. Wade to urge on him the restoration of Gen. Sheridan to his command in Louisiana, as soon as he (Wade) became President. Butler, he said, came near being the present President. Lincoln wanted him to run on the ticket in 1864 for Vice President, but Gen. Butler then thought the Vice Presidency an exceptionable place.

MORE GOOD NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.—A letter in the Baltimore Gazette says:

"There need be no longer a doubt, in truth, that Congress will meet on Monday under decidedly improved auspices. I learn that even some effort will be made to conciliate the South by the extremists. The Democrats and Democratic Conservative members, in the mean time, seem disposed to let the Radicals paddle their canoe unmolested by parliamentary impediments.—They say 'let us quietly look on and see what will be proposed; but vote as conscience shall dictate.'"

The same writer says Grant wants Washburne and Rawlins in his Cabinet.

DIALOGUE.—Grant—"Badeau, what are all these letters about that you are laughing over?" Badeau—"All applications for office." Grant—"Well, twist them up into cigar-lighters."—[Radical paper.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Dec. 5, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

PETITIONS.

By Mr. Welker: A petition from certain citizens of Alamance and Guilford Counties, praying the General Assembly to repeal all laws inflicting capital punishment. Referred to a special Committee, viz:—Messrs. Welker, Long and Scott.

By Mr. Blythe: A petition from certain citizens of Henderson County, praying the General Assembly to enact some law to prohibit herds of cattle from distempered regions being driven to the mountain ranges. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. Osborne: A petition from certain citizens of Mecklenburg County, praying the General Assembly to make some alteration in the Road laws. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

On motion of Mr. Love, a Committee of five was raised, to be known as the Committee on Public Roads, and all matters in reference to that subject were referred to that Committee.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Moore, from the Committee on Corporations, to whom was referred a bill to incorporate the North Carolina Mutual Home Insurance Company, reported a substitute for the same, recommending its passage.

Mr. Smith, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred a bill for the relief of P. T. Massey, and E. G. Hill, reported favorably.

BILLS, &C.

Mr. Moore, from the special Committee reported a bill to repeal an act providing for the employment of convicts and the erection of a Penitentiary. Placed on calendar.

By Mr. Osborne: A bill to amend an act, amendatory of an act to incorporate the Western North Carolina Railroad Company. Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

By Mr. Jones, of Wake: A bill to reenact and confirm certain acts in reference to certain Railroad Companies. Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

By Mr. Love: A resolution instructing the Librarian to purchase certain copies of the laws of 1866. Adopted.

Mr. Sweet, by request of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, introduced the following resolution, to wit:

Resolved, That as the Constitution, chap. 1, art. 11, sec. 24, provides that each House shall be the judge of the qualifications and election of its own members, it is the opinion of the Senate that when a decision has been made, it is final, and the right of a member to his seat cannot afterwards be questioned, except for conduct subsequent to his admission.

Considerable discussion arose upon the resolution. Messrs. Graham, Osborne and Sweet supported the resolution. They held, that, by the adoption of this resolution, the whole question would be settled at once. The charges against gentlemen, who now hold their seats, having once been investigated by the Committee, they were admitted to their seats. The Senate, by its action, admitted that they were not banned. They have passed on the question, sitting as a Judicial body, and it had the same force and effect as a decision by a Judge.—To attempt a new trial, after the case has been once decided, in the absence of any additional evidence, is simply ridiculous and would be a new proceeding in the history of legislation. We have already exercised that right in the Constitution, which says each House is the judge of the qualifications of its own members, have rendered a decision, and have no right to renew the trial.

Mr. Barrow opposed the resolution, because he believed that if it was adopted, the Senate would tie its hands completely. This measure was a part of the tactics to prevent the enforcement of the Howard amendment. This party failed to disperse the "carpet-bag government" in the State, and they are now trying to annul the Howard amendment.

Mr. Hayes introduced the following, as a substitute:

Whereas, The Committee on Privileges and Elections have asked for the opinion of the Senate concerning the authority of the Committee:

Therefore be it resolved, That said Committee be instructed and directed to report as though there had been no investigation, concerning the seats of members now under consideration.

Messrs. Welker, Barrow, Hayes, Davis and Galloway, colored, supported the substitute.

Messrs. Graham and Sweet opposed it.—After a lengthy discussion, the substitute was adopted as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Barrow, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Etheridge, Eppes, (colored,) Galloway, (colored,) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (colored,) Lassiter, Legg, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Richardson, Smith and Welker—21.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beasley, Boeman, Eaves, Forkner, Graham, Lindsay, Melchor, Osborne, Scott and Sweet—11.

BLACK MAIL.

A. H. Galloway, colored, introduced a resolution, proposing to remove Senator W. H. S. Sweet from the Committee to investigate Corruption, and to substitute some one in his stead.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, moved to lay the resolution on the table; which was carried: Ayes 15, Nays 15—the President giving the casting vote.

A. H. Galloway, colored, gave notice that he intended to contest the legality of the Committee, as the resolutions appointing them should have been read three times, and they were only read once.

Mr. Sweet arose to make a statement with the consent of the Senate.

A. H. Galloway, colored, objected.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Carteret, the Senate agreed to allow Mr. Sweet to proceed.

Mr. Sweet said: Mr. President, it was not my intention, had I been allowed to proceed, without interruption, to have consumed much of the time of the Senate. I desire to say that, as a member of this body, who has assumed an important responsibility, I believe the public will sustain me, when I say that the movements of certain persons in this body to place me, and this investigation Committee, in ridicule, establish the fact of guilt of the most damnable character, and the guilty scoundrels are trembling in their shoes. Consequently, they are throwing every obstacle in the way of the Committee, that they are capable of, but I intend to investigate this matter thoroughly, without fear or favor, and there is nothing which pleases me better than to see these attacks on me. They serve as a finger board, Mr. President, to guide the Committee.

A motion to hold evening sessions, from and after Monday next, was voted down.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until Monday, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Dec. 5, 1868.

The House was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of Chatham, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Messrs. Gunter and Horney were announced as being detained from their seats by sickness.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Seymour, from the Judiciary Committee, reported favorably upon Mr. French's bill to enable the Commissioners to better carry out the provisions of Article 7, Section 13, of the Constitution. Placed on the Calendar.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Harris, of Franklin, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to enquire and report, at the earliest practicable time, whether the Joint Committee, appointed under the act of the General Assembly, ratified the 24th day of August last, entitled an Act to provide for the employment of convicts in the erection of a Penitentiary, were authorized by the terms of said Act to purchase eight thousand acres of land for the use of said Penitentiary; and, further, that said Committee be instructed to report, by bill or otherwise, what measures, in their opinion, ought to be taken by this General Assembly, to protect the State against liability in consequence of the unauthorized purchase; Provided, That said Committee should be persuaded that said purchase was made without authority. Lies over.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill No. 94, introduced by Mr. Malone:

The following is the bill:

A BILL TO PROVIDE FOR THE REGISTRATION OF VOTERS IN ALL SPECIAL ELECTIONS IN THE STATE.

Sec. 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact: That all persons, heretofore registered as voters in this State, shall be allowed to vote in all special elections.

Sec. 2. That in all special elections held in this State, under proclamation of the Governor or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Judges, holding said elections in the several precincts, to register, on application, all persons who have not heretofore been registered, subject to all the requirements of the general registration law of the State.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its ratification.

The bill passed its second reading; when,

On its third reading, Mr. Seymour said that while he would vote for the bill, yet he objected to it, simply on the ground that it was nothing more than a re enactment of the law passed last session. He wished to have a preamble prefixed, stating that the bill was passed, in order to relieve doubts existing in the minds of some, that those already registered could not vote in the coming special elections.

Mr. Malone said those doubts did exist in his section.

After a short colloquy, Mr. Malone accepted the proposed amendment, and the bill, as amended, passed it third reading.

BILLS.

By Mr. Stilley: A bill to repeal an act to provide for furnishing the Executive Mansion. Referred.

By Mr. Malone: A bill to provide for the taking of depositions. Referred.

By the same: A bill to amend the charter of the Caldwell and Watauga Turnpike Road. Referred.

By Mr. Candler: A bill in favor of A. B. Jones, late Tax Collector of Buncombe.—Lies over.

By Mr. Vestal: A bill to provide for the settlement of the estates of deceased persons. Referred.

By Mr. Gibson: A bill for Mining, Manufacturing and other purposes. Referred.

By consent, Thos. A. Sykes, colored, offered a resolution in favor of J. M. Wood.—Referred.

A message was received from the Senate, notifying the House of the passage of the resolution taking a recess from 21st December to the 4th of January. Ordered to be enrolled.

Another message was received from that body, informing the House of the passage of a resolution in favor of W. M. Thompson, W. D. Jones, R. K. Ferrell and William Grimes, paying them certain sums of money, and asking the concurrence of the House.

On motion of Mr. Bowman, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Claims.

CALENDAR.

House bill No. 70, to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the Pitt County Female Institute, passed its third reading.

By consent, Mr. Vestal offered a resolution, requesting the Senators and Representatives from this State in Congress to use their influence to have the United States laws repealed or modified in relation to small distilleries. Referred.

CALENDAR RESUMED.

House bill No. 60, introduced by J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, to amend the charter of the city of Raleigh:

(This bill establishes a Special Court, &c.)

Mr. Gibson's minority report was also read (abstracts of both the majority and minority reports, with the original bill, have been published before.)

Mr. Gibson said that he wished to state, that in submitting the minority report, he made no objection to the original bill that passed the House, several days ago. He had nothing to say as to its necessity, but the Constitution expressly limited the establishment of Special Courts to towns and cities. The proposition to make a city of the whole county of Wake, for that single and sole purpose, and for no other, would be simply an evasion of the spirit of the Constitution, by a compliance with its letter.

Mr. Pou also objected to the bill.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, offered the following proviso:

That the expenses of lights, repairs of city streets, police and all other expenses, formerly paid out of the city treasury, be paid by a special tax, to be levied upon the property within, and the business carried on in, the former city limits.

Mr. Hodnett said that if the operations of this proviso were so extended as to protect the citizens of the county from the expense which the bill would certainly entail, he would have no objection to it.

Mr. Sinclair said that they had gone before the people, urging them to adopt the Constitution, and it was not in good taste now to be the first to violate that instrument, &c.

After some debate, the bill was, on motion of J. H. Harris, of Wake, (colored,) postponed until Monday next.

House bill No. 64, for the relief of Halifax county, unfavorably reported upon by the Committee, was next reached, when,

J. S. Leary, (colored,) moved that the recommendation of the Committee be concurred in.

Upon that motion, W. T. Hayes, (colored,) called for the yeas and nays. The call was not sustained, and the motion to concur was adopted.

House bill No. 65, (introduced by Mr. Parker,) to prohibit hunting on the Sabbath: (This bill provides that any person, or persons, who shall be known to hunt in this State on the Sabbath, with a dog or dogs, or shall be found off of their premises, on the Sabbath, having with him or them a shot gun, rifle or pistol, shall be subject to indictment, and, upon conviction shall pay a fine not to exceed fifty dollars—two-thirds of such fine to inure to the benefit of the free public schools in the county, of which such parties are residents; the remainder to go to the informant.]

This bill created quite a long discussion, and finally passed it several readings, with the following proviso, offered by Mr. Moore:

"Provided, that this act shall not apply to any person violating it in defence of his own property.

The House then adjourned, on motion of Mr. Pou, until Monday next, 11 o'clock."

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every policy issued. Should any policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMPLETE. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these schnapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They were, however only to have stimulated the repasty of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by nondescript humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them by with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick, for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of miasmatic river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the nefarious system of deception. In consequence, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has chosen it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in its form; and from every original package bearing his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK, 53 CEDAR STREET, November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification; that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,

We remain your obedient servants,
VALENTINE MOTT, M. D., Professor of Surgery, University Medical College, New York.

GIDEON'S BAND.

"Do you belong to Gideon's Band?"

For the information of the public, we propose to give the origin of this Association, of which Governor Holden is the Head-Centre.

It was said, by one of the stump-orators, last summer, when Governor Cantwell, late of Norfolk, Va., wrote his letter, giving in his adhesion to the Radicals, that "His Excellency," Governor Holden, converted his Majesty, Governor Cantwell, late Military Governor of Norfolk, by striking his empty belly with a pone of bread.

Robbins, the Senator from Rowan, is a good Methodist, and reads the Scriptures. He referred the stump orator, aforesaid, to the 7th. Chapter of Judges, 13th. and 14th. verses, which read as follows:

"And when Gideon was come, behold there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said: Behold! I dreamed a dream, and lo! a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

And his fellow answered and said, this is nothing else save the Sword of Gideon, the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for unto his hand hath God delivered Midian and all the host."

When "His Excellency," the Governor of North Carolina, struck his Grace, the late Governor of Norfolk, with a Judgeship, "he lay along." Then Gideon said to the Judge: "Get thee up; wherefore liest thou upon thy face?" Pulling off his secesh cockade, Col. Cantwell rose and wrote a letter to the people!

This experiment of the Head-Centre Gideon was pronounced a great success. J. B. Neathery & Co. swore that it was a miracle, so suddenly to have converted such a secesh!

The Lieutenant Governor, looking at that watch, as he stepped into the train for Morganton, sent word to the Governor to try the force of the experiment on the old Midlanite, Lewis P. Olds.

By the time Mars Tod returns, Gideon will have performed another miracle. And then Mars Tod will be able to take Lewis by the hand, and sing, with that melodious voice of his,

"Here's my heart and here's my hand!"
For you belong to Gideon's band!

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.—The original and renowned Gen. Tom Thumb and wife, accompanied by Commodore Nutt and Miss Minnie Warren,—all Lilliputians,—will visit this city on the 16th. inst., and give one of their pleasing entertainments in Tucker Hall. These "Ladies and Gentlemen in Miniature" have recently returned from Europe, where they have appeared before all the Royalty of the old World.

THE GRAND LODGE of North Carolina convenes in this city, this (Monday) evening, at 7 o'clock, at Masonic Hall.

The State Council of the Friends of Temperance assembles on Wednesday.

THE WILMINGTON Star, which is evidently concerned because Gen Zeb French doesn't "rise" oftener, will be still more concerned to see that he did rise, on Friday, and was pretty effectually "put down" by Messrs. Pou, of Johnston, and Ellington, of Rockingham.

CHAPLAIN PEPPER evidently thinks his late Thanksgiving Sermon a good one, as he publishes it in full in the Standard.

THE NORFOLK JOURNAL.—This excellent paper has entered upon the third year of its existence. It is one of our most valuable exchanges, and is conducted with energy, discretion and ability. Its Editor, Col. Lewellyn, whose acquaintance we had the pleasure of making recently, is a gallant gentleman and an accomplished writer.

GUS HOLMES, the negro murderer, is to be hung in Tarboro on Friday, the 1st day of January; that is, if "his Excellency" don't commute the sentence to a sojourn in the 8,000 acre Park.

THE SHORT DAYS.—From Wednesday last (the 2d December) to the 14th of the same month, the sun-set hour is fixed at 4.28. The twelve shortest afternoons will occur within those dates. After the 14th the afternoons will begin to lengthen. The mornings will be 24 minutes shorter. The sun rose on the 30th Nov. at 7.04. On the 31st Dec. it will rise at 7.30, and will continue to rise at that time till January 8.—The shortest, day, from sun rise to sun set, occurs December 21.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to the announcement of that cheap and popular Fertilizer, "Oyster Shell Lime," by that enterprising Firm, J. B. Hunter & Co., General Commission Merchants, Portsmouth, Va.

Choice Groceries, Wholesale and Retail: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

Andrews, the incomparable Clothier, tells the people, this morning, what he can do in his line; and we endorse all that he says.

Carpenters' and Blacksmiths' Tools and materials: Jesse Brown, (with Hart & Lewis.)

THE ELECTION IN THE 41ST. SENATORIAL DISTRICT.—We are pleased to learn that Dr. R. L. Beall is the Conservative Candidate in this District.

Dr. Beall is an excellent gentleman and a man of decided ability. He is quite an able debater on the stump. In the recent canvass, he did excellent service.

We feel no doubt of his election. We learn that the Lieut. Governor has left the City and his publications, for the purpose, it is supposed, of taking part in this contest!

MR. CLAYTON, OF TRANSYLVANIA.—The name of this gentleman was accidentally omitted in the negative vote on the substitute of Mr. French for the Senate black-mail resolutions. Of course, Mr. Clayton voted against the substitute. He is a fearless, manly Representative, who shrinks from no investigation, and always stands up for the good name of North Carolina.

SENATOR SWEET.—The public will not fail to admire Senator Sweet's courage and conscientiousness, as exhibited in the Senate, on Saturday. The hostility exhibited towards him, as he very pointedly remarked, is a sure finger-board pointing the way to detection. Let him go on, and all honest men, of whatever party, will applaud and commend him.

THE MOTION TO QUASH.—The New York Tribune remarks as follows on the motion now pending before Chief Justice Chase to quash the proceedings against Mr. Davis: "The motion (says the Tribune) comes none too soon. Mr. Davis should have been tried or dismissed years ago. We hope it may now be found possible to do one or the other."

THE TELEGRAPH has recorded a remarkable case of kleptomania, in New York, resulting in the suicide of the maniac from shame at the discovery. The case is chiefly remarkable from its very rareness. If the Radical kleptomaniacs were thus to dispose of themselves, the losses in the Wilderness would be trivial in comparison!

THE CITIZENS of Charlotte have nominated Major C. Dowd for the Mayoralty, at the ensuing Municipal election. Major D. is eminently fitted for the position.

A FRAUD EXPOSED.—C. W. Jackson, who claims to be a spiritual medium, has created quite a sensation in St. Louis in the trying up business. He was challenged to an exhibition of his skill by Hartz, the magician, and on his first trial succeeded in freeing himself from his bonds in a few moments, to the great delight of the Spiritualists of that city. On Friday night last the trial was repeated, when the gentlemen selected to tie him insisted upon searching him before commencing operations. They found a sharp penknife concealed in one shoe and a coil of rope wound round his body. His trick consisted simply in being tied with a rope similar to the one he had concealed, and then when confined in his "cabinet" cutting the one with which he was tied and secreting the pieces, and substituting for it the one he had concealed on his body, which he exhibited to his audience as having been untied by spirits. When the knife and cords were taken from him the spirits failed to respond to his invocations and he was released from his "cabines" bound as securely as he went in.

A WIFE AS A BUSINESS PARTNER WITH HER HUSBAND.—A case came up in this city before the Supreme court, Judge Baker last week, in which this question was at issue. Spellman et al. vs. Colwell & Co. The plaintiffs reside in New York city and the defendants in this city. The action was brought to recover for the sale of goods to the firm of Colwell & Co. George Wadsworth appeared for the plaintiffs and Josiah Cook for the defendants. The defence set up a non joinder of parties, claiming that the wife of the defendant, Colwell, should have been made a defendant in the case, for the reason that she had a joint interest in the business with her husband; that at the time of the creation of the firm she and her husband put in an equal amount of capital, and that the capital put in by her was her own separate property, and that although wife of the defendant she could be his partner. Judge Baker decided that a man's wife could not be his partner in business, and ordered judgment for the plaintiff for the amount sued for. We understand that the defendant's counsel intend to appeal the case, claiming that a woman has the right under the present statutes of this State to invest her money as she pleases, and that she can become a partner in business with her husband.—Buffalo Courier.

OUR RAILROAD.—The efficient and gentlemanly Chief Engineer, Mr. J. C. Turner, with a full corps of active and capable assistants, is now industriously and energetically at work surveying the Western Division and French Broad Branch of our railroad.

The energy already displayed by the President and Directors of the Western Division is a guaranty that the work will be pushed forward to completion as rapidly as possible. All concerned have our most cordial co-operation, in everything that will facilitate the good work.—Asheville News.

MORE OF NORTHERN CIVILIZATION.—Chicago, December 2.—At Milwaukee, at a late hour last night, the captain of the bark Dobbins went on board the vessel, and after angry words between his wife and himself, knocked her down, and stamped on and kicked her in such a terrible manner that she gave premature birth to a child, which he seized and threw overboard. He then sent for a doctor, and disappeared. The woman is in a critical condition. The brute will be arrested.

[And Chicago groans over the state of society in the South.]

PORK PACKING IN INDIANAPOLIS.—Pork packing is in full blast in Indianapolis, Indiana. Up to Friday night there had been killed 4,000. The average weight is about 220 pounds, and the price $6,75. It is supposed there are as many hogs in the country as there were last year, but they are moving much earlier. Farmers are rather anxious to sell at present prices, preferring that to feeding, as the corn is somewhat light, and it takes more to fatten than was anticipated.

COSTLY LUXURY.—The Marshall Republican says: "The recent scallawag Texas Convention appropriated $15,000 as a secret service fund to trace out disloyalty. Of course a vast amount of it can be traced out for this sum."

The Washington residence of Gen. Grant has been sold to the Radical mayor of that city for $40,000. The General expects to occupy a government house, rent free, next year, and has an eye to economy.

THE INDIAN WAR.—Dispatches from Kansas give a brief account of the commencement of actual hostilities against the Indians. On November 23d, immediately after the arrival of General Sheridan at Fort Dodge, in Southwest Kansas, General Custer, with eleven companies of the 7th United States cavalry, left that point, in the midst of a violent snow storm, with instructions to march in a Southernly direction towards the Wachita mountain and river, Indian territory. After a severe journey of four days, on the morning of November 27th, General Custer struck a village of hostile Indians, on the North fork of the Wachita.

The village was composed of forty-seven lodges of Black Kettle's band of Cheyennes, two lodges of Arrapahoes and two lodges of Sioux, and was defended by the members of these tribes, as well as by a reinforcement of the Kiowas. The battle commenced on the morning of November 27th, and lasted until the afternoon and resulted in the total destruction of the village. One hundred and fifty Indians were killed and fifty-three were taken prisoners. An immense amount of stores, consisting of 1,000 horses and mules, arms, ammunition, horse equipments, robes and provisions were captured and destroyed.

The Indians, including the women and boys, fought desperately under the cover of the bushes and grass, and many of the wounded are reported to have escaped.—The losses among the United States troops are as follows: Officers—Major George L. H. Elliot, Captain Louis M. Hamilton, and nineteen enlisted men killed; and the wounded are Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Albert Harnitz, Captain Seventh Cavalry, supposed mortally; Brevet Lieutenant Colonel T. W. Custer and Second Lieutenant J. M. Marsh, slightly, and eleven enlisted men, making a total of twenty-one killed and fourteen wounded. General Custer will return to Fort Dodge to make preparations for another campaign.

All the Congressmen elected from Indiana, including Julian and Voorhees, have received their certificates of election.

Seven hundred trains pass each other daily at the Clapham (London) Junction.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5, P. M.

General Schofield has returned.

Members of Congress are arriving rapidly.

The Dyer Court of Inquiry will adjourn from Saturday next to the 10th of January.

Revenue to-day $132,000.

Woolley has withdrawn his suit in Baltimore against Butler, for false imprisonment.

There is a strong pressure here to keep the Georgia Senators out, but this will not disturb the members of the House—the theory being that Congressmen, representing constituencies, are not affected by the action of the State Legislature.

T. B. Florence, who was recently defeated for Congress in the Second Pennsylvania District, has been appointed Assessor for the same District.

Full abstracts of the annual reports were published in this morning's Tribune.

THE COLLISION IN OHIO.

MADISON, Dec. 5, P. M.

Immediately after the collision of the Mail Boats, America and United States, the petroleum on the States was fired. In thirty seconds, the United States was in flames from stem to stern. It is supposed that eighty were lost, including forty women. The America lost no passengers. The America was upward and the United States downward bound.

The accident occured at 11.30, last night. The boats departed from their respective landings at noon on Friday.

GRANT.

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 5, P. M.

Gen. Grant is visiting Burnside. He goes to Hartford to-night.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Dec. 5, P. M.

It is understood, to-day, that it is the intention of Gen. Stoneman to proceed at once to apply the 14th Amendment in filling the offices of Clerks of Courts and Commonwealth's Attorneys in the State. A list of persons, who are now eligible, is being prepared by the civil authorities.

It is officially stated that the July interest of the State debt (two per cent) will be paid on January first.

In the United States Circuit Court, this morning, the Chief Justice gave the certificate of a division of opinion on the motion to quash the Davis indictment.

The case of Mr. Davis, in this Court, was then continued till the May term, in order that the motion to quash may be decided in the Supreme Court, before the case is called again here. The Court directed a renewal of the bail bond of the prisoner to be made.

Judge Chase left on the noon train for Washington.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Dec. 5, P. M.

The Times argues against yielding to the new demand of Seward in the Alabama claims, that questions of international law be submitted to the Commission. Both American and British Commissioners are committed naturally to opposite sides.

The Times regrets that Stanley was robbed of the glory of settling these international questions, but is satisfied that his successor will pursue the Stanly policy.

It is reported that Bright peremptorily declined the Secretaryship of State of India, but urges the Earl of Kimberly as foreign Secretary. A full list of the Ministers will be completed on Monday.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

Will be sold at Littleton, at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, on the 22nd day of December, 1868, a Tract of Land belonging to the heirs of William P. Little, deceased, adjoining the lands of Charles Alston, John Myrick, H Jones and others, containing about lying within half a mile of the Railroad near Littleton.

NINE HUNDRED ACRES,

Said lands were formerly sold under a decree of the Court of Equity of Halifax County, and purchased by Messrs. Mallory and Myrick, and now sold under a decree of the Court, because of nonpayment of the price.

The terms of payment will be five per cent. cash, and the residue payable in equal instalments, upon a credit of 6, 12 and 18 months, with interest from the day of sale. Bond, with good security, will be required, and the purchaser let into possession, but the title will be withheld until payment be made. Any other terms will be made known on the day of sale.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $320,949.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash systems, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it, more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

NEW YORK.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is DEFINITE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premiums charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $10,000, payable at his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would entitle him the sum of $8,674.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the assurance is meant to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured on the event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To increase the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that, for a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of thirty-three and one-third per cent, payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash value of the premium is immediately secured to the assured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

THE CHILDREN.

[The following beautiful poem was written by Charles Dickens.]

When the lessons and tasks are all ended,
And the school for the day is dismissed,
And the little ones gather round me,
To bid me good night and be kissed:
Oh, the little white arms that encircle
My neck in a tender embrace!
Oh, the smiles that are balms of heaven,
Shedding sunshine of love on my face!

And when they are gone I sit dreaming
Of my childhood, too lovely to last;
Of love that my heart will remember,
When it wakes to the pulse of the past—
Ere the world and its wickedness made me
A partner of sorrow and sin;
When the glory of God was about me,
And the glory of gladness within.

Oh my heart grows weak as a woman's,
And the fountains of feeling will flow,
When I think of the paths steep and stony,
Where the feet of the dear ones must go;
Of the mountains of sin hanging o'er them,
Of the tempest of Fate blowing wild;
Oh, there is nothing on earth half so holy
As the innocent heart of a child!

They are idols of hearts and of households,
They are angels of God in disguise;
His sunlight still sleeps in their tresses,
His glory still gleams in their eyes;
Oh, those truants from home and from heaven,
They have made me more manly and mild!
And I know how Jesus could liken
The Kingdom of God to a child.

I ask not a life for the dear ones,
All radiant, as others have done,
But that life may have just enough shadow
To temper the glare of the sun;
I would pray God to guard them from evil,
But my prayer would bound back to myself;
Ah! a seraph may pray for a sinner,
But a sinner must pray for himself.

The twig is so easily bended,
I have banished the rule and the rod;
I have taught them the goodness of knowledge,
They have taught me the goodness of God;
My heart is a dungeon of darkness,
Where I shut them from breaking a rule;
My frown is sufficient correction;
My love is the law of the school.

I shall leave the old house in the autumn,
To traverse its threshold no more;
Ah! how I shall sigh for the dear ones
That meet me each morn at the door!
I shall miss the "good nights" and the kisses,
And the gush of their innocent glee,
The group on the green, and the flowers
That are brought every morning to me.

I shall miss them at morn and at evening,
Their song in the school and the street;
I shall miss the low hum of their voices,
And the tramp of their delicate feet.
When the lessons and tasks are all ended,
And death says, "The school is dismissed!"
May the little ones gather around me,
To bid me good night and be kissed.

MORE'N YOU'LL KEEP."—Some years ago an old sign-painter, who was very cross, very grim, and a little deaf, was engaged to paint the Ten Commandments on some tables in a church. He worked two days at it, and at the close of the second day the pastor came in to see how the work progressed. The old man stood by smoking a short pipe as the reverend gentleman ran his eye over the tablets.

"Eh!" said the pastor, as his familiar eye detected something wrong in the wording of the holy precepts; "why, you careless old person, you have left a part of one of the commandments entirely out—don't you see?"

"No—no such thing," said the old man, putting on his spectacles; "no, nothing left out—where?"

"Why, there," persisted the pastor; "here, look at them in the Bible—you have left some of the commandments out."

"Well, what if I have," said obstinacy, as he ran his eye complacently over his work—"what if I have? There's a confounded sight more there now than you'll keep!"

Another artist was employed next day.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

Home Testimony.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER.—If any recommendation is wanted to convince our citizens of the great utility, saving, convenience, and perfect adaptation, of this Boiler, to all it claims, beyond what is stated by the well-known firm of J. B. Hunter & Co., Commission Merchants, Portsmouth, Va., who introduced it in our community, we think that the following testimony of our esteemed citizens is sufficient to satisfy the most incredulous. The Agent will remain here a week longer. Persons can be supplied by calling on him at Lougee & Bro's. County rights for sale.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov 19, 1868.

Messrs J B Hunter & Co, Portsmouth, Va:

GENTLEMEN:—We, the undersigned, citizens of Raleigh, N. C., have thoroughly tested the merits of the "Automatic Washer and Boiler," and unhesitatingly pronounce it all that is claimed for it, in every respect, and most cheerfully recommend it to every household throughout the country.
